12 COOL THINGS To Do During Fall In Southern IDAHO

1

EERIE EXPERIENCE

Brave your way through tremendous scares at the Haunted Mansions of Albion.

2

CANDY GALORE

Take the little ones to the multiple Trunk or Treat events taking place throughout Southern Idaho.

3

JACK-O-LANTERNS

Pick out the largest pumpkins for your carving needs at Crismor's Pumpkin Patch in Buhl.

4

FALL HARVEST

Costume parades and trick-or-treating are only some of the activities offered at the Jerome Farmers Market Annual Harvest Festival.

5

HUNTERS' GAME

Southern Idaho's proximity to wildlife makes it the ideal place during hunting season.

6

A TOUR OF FALL

Don't bale on the hayrides at Tubbs' Berry Farm and bring home some honey to your honey.

7

HALLOWEEN THRILL

Try not to jump as you journey through the Idaho Haunted Swamp in Twin Falls.

8

FIND YOUR WAY

Get lost and have fun on slides at the Burley Straw Maze.

9

BREWING TRADITION

Celebrate Oktoberfest in the new Downtown Twin Falls, featuring food, car shows, music, street vendors and more.

10

WINE WITH A VIEW

Visit Idaho's 2017 Winery of the Year - Crossings Winery in Glenns Ferry - for the best in wine and autumn scenery.

11

HEAPS OF SHEEP

Flank to one of the best cultural festivals in the world: Sun Valley's Trailing of the Sheep.

12

HAUNT & FLAUNT

Ghosts and ghouls of all ages put on their best costumes for the Hailey Halloween Hoopla.

Southern IDAHO Feed Your Soul!

*Heaps of Sheep photo courtesy of Carol Waller.

southernidaho.org SouthernIdahoED SouthernIdahoED SouthernIdahoEDO