

12 COOL THINGS

Staycations

A TRIP THROUGH TIME

Stay where Oregon Trail pioneers crossed the Snake River in a cozy cabin at Three Island Crossing State Park and Museum.

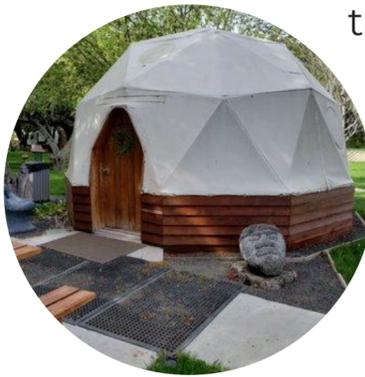

GLAM OR GLAMP

Stay at the lovely Almo Inn or go glamping in the Willow Yurt, both nearby Castle Rocks State Park.

A STAY IN THE SQUARE

The Drift Inn is located in the heart of Historic Rupert Square, surrounded by local shops, great food and culture.

RELAXING YURT

Spend the night in a cute and comfortable yurt just feet away from relaxing natural hot pools at Miracle Hot Springs.

HOT SPRING HIDEAWAY

Take some time for yourself soaking in Nat-Soo-Pah Hot Springs and stay close by at their on-site campground.

PRIVATE ISLAND PARADISE

Your own island adventure in the middle of Southern Idaho! Stay in your choice of two rental homes on Ritter Island, with breathtaking waterfalls and Snake River access.

CAMPING IN THE CITY

Tent, RV or under the stars: Pick the perfect camping spot and surround yourself in the beauty and wonder of the City of Rocks National Reserve.

LAKESIDE DREAM

Hiking, boating or relaxing, Lake Walcott offers the perfect getaway. Grab a campsite and enjoy the scenery!

A CREEKSIDE ESCAPE

Located in a peaceful oasis in Hagerman, Billingsley Creek Lodge has several private cabins along a beautiful creek—with white water and kayak rentals available for the adventurers.

PRAIRIE PARADISE

From skiing, to mountain biking, to the amazing Camas lilies, stay at the Prairie Inn or Iron Mountain Inn in Fairfield after a day of adventure.

GOODING GETAWAY

Take a break from exploring Southern Idaho in Gooding, with two unique and historic options for a night away: Gooding Hotel Bed & Breakfast or University Inn & Resort.

CANYON CAMPING

On an RV road trip or just want a night away? Stay deep down in Rock Creek Canyon RV Park in Twin Falls with opportunities for picnic-ing, nature walks and disc golf.

